Emergency

If an accident happens the priorities are to:

- establish nature and extent of the emergency as quickly as possible
- ensure that all the group are safe and looked after
- establish the names of any casualties and get immediate medical attention
- ensure all group members who need to know are informed and follow emergency procedures
- ensure a teacher accompanies any casualties to hospital and the rest of the group remain adequately supervised and kept together
- notify the police if necessary
- inform the school contact (the number(s) should be accessible at all times during the visit)
- Details should be passed on to the school contact including:
 - nature, time and date and location of incident
 - names of casualties and details of injuries
 - names of others involved
 - action yet to be taken and by whom
- notify the Assistance Company of the insurers (especially if medical assistance is required)
- notify provider/tour operator
- ascertain telephone numbers for future contact (do not rely on mobile numbers)
- write down all relevant facts as soon as possible, witness details and preserve any vital evidence
- keep a written record of all events, times and contacts after the incident
- complete an accident report as soon as possible and contact HSE/LEA inspector
- if Overseas you may need to inform the British Embassy/Consulate

Liability

Do not discuss liability with other parties

Media

No one in the group should speak to the media - do not give names and refer media enquiries to designated contact in home area

N.B. No one, unless they are in a relevant official capacity, has the right see anyone who does not wish to see them. In the event of any verbal communication, keep a written record of everything that is said, and happens.
